SERVING GOD WITH PURPOSE

Romans 8:28

Wednesday Evenings

We all need a boost midweek to persevere before Sunday comes around again. So, the elders and minister have talked about what might be the best way to encourage people to come back again on Wednesday evenings.

Presently, we will be meeting at 6:30 for a meal together. This is optional in order to help those who have work and kids in school and don't have time to prepare food before we meet. We will be putting out a menu of items that each family can sign up for and the cost for each meal to help with having to cook and plan each Wednesday. Again, purchasing a meal is optional. You can sign up for a meal in the welcome center or you can bring your own food. OR you don't have to eat at all.

Then at 7:00 we will begin our time of bible study. This study will consist of questions that come from the Bob Young Dwelling in the Word book and questions Mike will be creating that come from his sermon from Sunday. It will be a time to “check-in” with how you are doing with the things he preached about on Sunday and to encourage you with those lessons and challenges he gives each week. We will have a group discussion about those questions. Then we will have a time of personal prayer together as we lift up our requests to God for the week. If you decide that you don't want to join us for the meal, or if your schedule won't allow you to come that early, please still come at 7:00 and fellowship, study, and pray with us.

Our Wednesday evenings will be in the Fellowship Hall for the duration of our time together. We hope this will be encouraging and help lift you up as we all travel this life.

We will begin our first Wednesday evening fellowship on April 12th. Sign-ups for food will be at the Welcome Center next Sunday.

4.9.23 – “Being Saved”

There is no greater blessing in life than being saved by the grace of God. Salvation includes many blessings, including redemption, sanctification, justification, atonement, and reconciliation. What a blessing to be saved!

For privacy reasons, the web version of this bulletin has been modified from the printed version distributed on Sunday morning.

(NKJ) John 12:1-8

¹² Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had been dead, whom He had raised from the dead. ² There they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. ³ Then Mary took a pound of very costly oil of spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

⁴ But one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said, ⁵ "Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" ⁶ This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it.

⁷ But Jesus said, "Let her alone; she has kept this for the day of My burial. ⁸ For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

(NKJ) Philippians 3:4b-14

If anyone else thinks he may have confidence in the flesh, I more so: ⁵ circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; ⁶ concerning zeal, persecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

⁷ But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. ⁸ Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ ⁹ and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; ¹⁰ that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, ¹¹ if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

¹² Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. ¹³ Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, ¹⁴ I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.
