Isaiah 35:4 (ESV)

<sup>4</sup> Say to those who have an anxious heart,
“Be strong; fear not!
Behold, your God
will come with vengeance,
with the recompense of God.
He will come and save
you.”

7.23.23 – “Foundations”

“If the foundations are destroyed,
what can the righteous do?” (Psalm 11:3).
When people reject the foundations of God,
they end up destroying themselves and everything around them. We need God’s foundations.

I am glad to report to you that the roof is in progress and Mid August we will give you the report of completion of the work. When we finish the roof the other task will be of plastering inside and floors. Plastering outside can be done in years to come but the inside and the floors it will be needed.

We have heard of the strong wind in Tulsa and it's our prayer that the damages done to the property and trees and streets may God continue to take care of people in Tulsa. More especially we pray for our Brethren and safety of our beloved brothers and sisters. We pray for this disaster.

This month of July in the first week with Esther we enrolled 250 World Bible School students at Wedza High, 100 at Chigwedere Secondary School and 250 at Rambanepasi Secondary School.

Before I talked of World Bible School I delivered at the message I am preaching to Wedza District Schools moving with the Theme Mind your Destiny. We thank God who give us strength to do his work. We used public transport with Esther. It was so painful because we had to finish the trip walking when we dropped at the township of Garabha one and half miles. We can do all things through Christ Jesus who gives us strength. Philippians 4:13.

(NKJ) Matthew 17:1-8

17 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves; <sup>2</sup> and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. <sup>3</sup> And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him. <sup>4</sup> Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, let us make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear Him!” <sup>6</sup> And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid. <sup>7</sup> But Jesus came and touched them and said, “Arise, and do not be afraid.” <sup>8</sup> When they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.
