Weekly Scripture

Proverbs 1:8-19 (ESV)

8 Hear, my son, your father's instruction,
and forsake not your mother's teaching,
9 for they are a graceful garland for your head and pendants for your neck.
10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.
11 If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood;
let us ambush the innocent without reason;
12 like Sheol let us swallow them alive, and whole, like those who go down to the pit;
13 we shall find all precious goods, we shall fill our houses with plunder;
14 throw in your lot among us; we will all have one purse"—
15 my son, do not walk in the way with them;
hold back your foot from their paths,
16 for their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed blood.
17 For in vain is a net spread in the sight of any bird,
18 but these men lie in wait for their own blood;
they set an ambush for their own lives.
19 Such are the ways of everyone who is greedy for unjust gain;
it takes away the life of its possessors.

Hope Harbor near Claremore, Oklahoma helps children and families by giving them the tools and support they need to move forward in life. Hope Harbor serves adolescents and their families in our comprehensive residential program which is built on a foundation of faith and excellence.

"Our mission is to help children and families affected by trauma by giving them the tools and support they need to move forward in life."

When you donate to Hope Harbor you provide healing for children and their families.

Solar Players. Millions couldn't read the Bible even if it were given to them in their own language. In fact, 773 million adults in the world can't read or write. Others live in remote locations where 1.2 billion don't have electricity. In Zimbabwe, 80% of the rural population does not have electricity. These handicaps inhibit them from learning about the Gospel. They don't know and believe because they haven't heard. But now, with solar-powered audio players, they can hear the Word of God and believe.

(NKJ) Mark 12:28-34

²¹ And when they had preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,
²² strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, "We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God."
²³ So when they had appointed elders in every church, and prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed.
²⁴ And after they had passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.
²⁵ Now when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.
²⁶ From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed.

²⁷ Now when they had come and gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.
²⁸ So they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

(NKJ) Colossians 2:6-15

⁶ As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him,
⁷ rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

⁸ Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ.
⁹ For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily;
¹⁰ and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power.

¹¹ In Him you were also circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ,
¹² buried with Him in baptism, in which you also were raised with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead.
¹³ And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, ¹⁴ having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.
¹⁵ Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it.
